

Town & Village Host Intergovernmental Meeting. Public Hearing Set for March 1, 2005.

January 4, 2005. This evening the Town and Village hosted their last element meeting to discuss the Intergovernmental Cooperation Element. Invitations to this meeting were mailed out to representatives from Outagamie County, the East Central Wisconsin Regional Plan Commission, neighboring towns, school districts, the Wisconsin Department of Transportation and the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources.

During the meeting, Amy Emery of OMNNI, provided an overview of the planning program leading to a discussion of the Draft Future Land Use Maps. Participants then spent some time discussing intergovernmental successes and challenges facing the Town and Village of Black Creek. Next, participants had the chance to share the status of their community / agency plans with the Town and Village of Black Creek.

The next meeting will be a joint Town and Village meeting on January 11, 2005 to review the final draft document. A public hearing has been scheduled for March 1, 2005.
